Keep them out of the house by buying screens for your doors and windows. We have them in great variety, adjustable to required size, and very reasonable in price.

Easley News Items

From The Easley Progress.
We sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hester, of the city, in the death of an infant daughter born on the 8th inst., living only a few hours. It was buried the same day at Enon church cemetery west of the city.

The baccalaureate sermon of the closing exercises of the Easley graded school will be delivered on Sunday, May 21, at 11 o'clock a. m., in the school auditorium, by Prof. R. O. Lawton, D. D., of Lander College.

Mr. Ben T. Durham, formerly of this city, died at his home in Dalton, Ga., on the 24th of April, from rheumatism of the heart. Mr. Durham moved from Easley to Dalton about ten or twelve years ago. He is survived by his wife and seven children. His brother, Rev. T. E. Durham of this city, and his brother-in-law, Mr. T. N. Smith, attended the funeral on the day following his death at Dalton, Ga.

The contractors who have charge of the grading on the division of the Southern entering the city from the east are working night and day and a good part of Sunday in order to get through with the grading on this division so as to get to work on another division west of the city. They have been doing a good deal of blasting the past week in the cut near the Baptist church. The drill can be heard running at all hours of the night.

Mr. Eliphus C. Sanders, a well known citizen of this county, died at the home of his son, Mr. Pete Sanders, at Glenwood mill village on the 8th instant, after a few days' illness from apoplexy. Age 61 years. He is survived by his wife and eight grown children, three sons and five daughters, all of whom reside in this and adjoining counties. His body was carried to Liberty, his former home, for interment. Mr. Sanders was stricken with paralysis one day last week as he was walking from the Easley mill into the city. He was seen to fall by some one passing and was carried to the home of his son, Ex-Policeman Pete Sanders, where he died, never having fully regained consciousness.

To the Merchants and Patrons Of the Pickens Railroad Co.

The management of the Pickens R. R. Co. has ordered that in the future, to expedite the transaction of the business handled by it and to render the best service to all concerned, the following rules be observed in the delivery of freight and express:

That all freight and express be paid for before delivery. This is strictly observed by all railroads and express companies everywhere. It renders better satisfaction to both company and patrons, as well as making the work lighter on the agent. The agent for this company is under bond and is responsible for every cent he handles. This system will eliminate all misunderstandings in regard to condition of freight when received.

No Order Notify Shipment will be delivered unless Endorsed Bill of Lading is presented to agent. This must be strictly observed and we earnestly request that our merchants and patrons not ask that the agent break this most stringent of all laws governing agents' work. To violate this rule brings the entire value of the shipment on the agent's shoulders. Any agent violating this rule subjects himself to dismissal of service.

For every shipment forwarded from Pickens by freight or express requires receipts to be stamped with a one-cent revenue stamp. Each shipper will be furnished with Express Bills and Bills of Lading, which they can fill out and send down with shipment. Remember that the shipment will not be sent until this is complied with.

We earnestly request that all our patrons co-operate with us in carrying out these rules. The people of Pickens have always stood nobly by the railroad in the past, as we are all mutually interested in each others' welfare. Therefore, let us work in harmony in the future as we have in the past.

Yours very truly,

Approved: J. P. CAREY, J. T. TAYLOR,
President. Gen. Mgr.

CENTRAL'S MOTHER GOOSE

BY A. H. A., CENTRAL.

If every man was a P. M.
And every "kid" a clerk,
And every woman "assistant" P. M.,
Then who would do the work?

I thought that success
Had rewarded my quest
And that I should be a great writer;
But my literary knocks
At the editor's box
Only caused the lid to close tighter.

Though now I possess
The key to success,
Still I'm no nearer my goal;
The coveted key
Means nothing to me,
For now I can't find the keyhole!

From a N. C. Subscriber

Editor Pickens Sentinel: Please find enclosed one dollar, for which continue my paper for one year from the time my subscription expired. I like to read the news from my old home town and of the people I used to know, although I see things sometimes that are anything but pleasant, such as the death of Major Lynch, Captain Herd and others of my old friends.

But such is life, and if one is prepared it matters not where he falls, in Pickens county, S. C., or Hendersonville, N. C. There will be a common meeting place somewhere.

Wishing The Sentinel and all its readers success and happiness, I am
Yours sincerely,

D. A. COOPER.
